IEEE Industrial Application Society
Electrical Safety Committee
BYLAWS

Provisions in these Bylaws shall be enhanced by the Operating Manual and other Committee documents.

Article I. Scope

The scope of the Electrical Safety Committee is the treatment of all matters within the scope of the IAS in which the emphasis or dominant factor specifically relates to the hazards of electricity and the prevention of injury by individuals from electrical equipment and electrical energy. The Electrical Safety Committee will encourage and support the ongoing electrical safety activities in other IAS Committees.

Article II. General

The IAS Electrical Safety Committee (aka the Committee) is the governing body for all of its subcommittees, working groups, conference committees, standards activities, and other ad hoc committees and sponsored activities as appropriate. It is responsible for establishing and revisions to the Committee Bylaws and election of the Committee Chair, Vice Chair and Secretary. It meets annually at the IEEE IAS Electrical Safety Workshop (ESW).

Article III. Meetings (Regular, Special, Quorum)

- The annual meetings of the Committee will be held in conjunction with the IEEE IAS Electrical Safety Workshop at a date and time scheduled by the Committee Chair.
- The Advisory and Nominations Subcommittee will meet at least four (4) times during the year either in person or electronically as deemed appropriate by the Committee Chair.
- The Executive Subcommittee will meet at the IEEE IAS Electrical Safety Workshop immediately following the Committee Meeting
- Special meetings of the Committee may be called at any time by the Committee Chair. In all cases, special meetings shall be limited to the stated purpose, which must be communicated in advance to all members.
- A quorum of Committee members shall be required at any regular or special meeting in order for business to be conducted. A quorum shall be defined as a majority of committee members. A simple majority vote of the members present is needed to approve any business not otherwise specified in the Bylaws herein.
- Each Committee Member shall have one vote in all matters regardless of their position.
- Any member, who fails to attend two consecutive regular Committee meetings without being excused by the Committee Chair, will be considered for termination from the committee.
Article IV. Membership

Members are appointment annually by the Committee Chair. Members are expected to be actively involved in supporting Committee activities, including one or more of the following:
